Nature of the Course

Participants who choose to earn graduate credit from Silver Lake College will have the opportunity to extend the knowledge and skills gained in the workshop “Understanding and Supporting Emotional Regulation” to an independent and authentic application of theory to practice within his/her relevant educational and/or professional setting. Evaluation Criteria Checklists for written requirements outline the specific components and content which participants need to include for successful completion of each requirement. It is the student’s responsibility to determine whether s/he has the prerequisite knowledge and skills to complete the credit option requirements.

Workshop Content Description

This workshop will define emotional regulation and discuss the effect it has on learning for individuals with autism. Workshop content will discuss the challenges of emotional dysregulation for individuals with ASD and the behaviors that can be seen when dysregulation occurs. Strategies for assisting individuals with ASD to regulate, recognize, and communicate emotions will be presented and practiced.

Objectives of the course

Participants who choose to complete the independent and authentic application of theory to practice for one (1) graduate credit will demonstrate the following knowledge and skills:

1. Define emotional regulation.
2. List behaviors that can occur when an individual begins to experience “emotional discomfort.”
3. Describe the challenges of emotional recognition related to facial expression, body position, body movement, tone of voice, choice of words, and rate of speech for individual with ASD.
4. Define synesthesia and the effect it can have on emotional regulation.
5. Identify the specific emotion behaviors that must be directly taught (e.g., regulation, recognition, expressions, emotional language, cause and effect, etc.) to assist individuals with ASD regulate emotions. Describe specific strategies for teaching emotional recognition, expressions, and feelings.
6. Analyze, compare and contrast current evidence-based practice research strategies for addressing emotional regulation issues for individuals with ASD.

One (1)-Credit Requirement

- Write a brief biographical sketch of your professional education, experience and current professional position.
- Complete Requirement #1
- Complete Requirement #2

General Descriptions of Credit Requirements—Evaluation Criteria Checklist for each requirement contain more specific information and is found at the end of this syllabus.

Requirement #1– Key Concepts, New Learning & Application (Summary, synthesis, application) (100 points)

This requirement involves summarizing the key concepts addressed in the workshop. The content of the key concepts summary includes synthesis of workshop information, identification of new knowledge and skills or extension of knowledge and skills, and authentic application to relevant setting/environment. The outline below (A-C) delineates the topic headings for Requirement # 1.

Identify each section as indicated below:

PART A: Summarize 8-10 key concepts (knowledge and skills) from the workshop.

PART B: Identify (in paragraph form) new knowledge and skills or the extension of prior knowledge and skills for each of the summarized key concepts in Part A.

PART C: Apply, analyze, evaluate the above new knowledge and skills or extension of prior knowledge and skills for each of the identified concepts to your educational and/or professional setting. For example, how and/or when you can use the knowledge & skills, etc., usefulness of the knowledge and skills to you professionally (i.e., what information was most helpful, interesting, and why the knowledge and skills will be helpful to you). Be specific. Give examples.

Requirement #2—Journal Article Critique (100 points)

- a. Read a professional journal article which addresses current evidence-based practice research for addressing emotional regulation issues for individuals with ASD.
- b. Write a brief summary of the article (3-4 paragraphs).
- c. Critique the article. Use the Critical Analysis, Synthesis, and Evaluation points on Criteria Checklist Form for content of critique.
- d. Give specific examples of how you can/will incorporate this knowledge and skills into program planning in your classroom or educational setting.
